Dear Hiring Team,

I am pleased to submit my application for consideration. I hold a degree in Systems and Information Technologies from the University of Algarve, where I also completed an internship that allowed me to apply and expand my knowledge in web development and process automation.

During my internship, I contributed to two key projects:

- Rainbow Map Europe – Developed an interactive web application for visualizing data on LGBTQ+ equality in Europe, using PHP, JavaScript (Highcharts library) and WordPress.
- Automatic Proposal and Contract Generator – Created a system to automate the generation of PDF proposals and contracts, reducing errors and optimizing the company's workflow. This project involved Python, LaTeX and JavaScript.

Since completing my internship, I have been working on personal web projects and continuously expanding my tech stack, which now includes:

- Languages & Frameworks: Laravel, TypeScript, Angular.

Additionally, I have experience as an IT Support Technician (Help Desk) from 2016 to 2018 in Brazil, where I developed resilience, adaptability, and quick problem-solving skills in technical environments.

With a strong interest in full-stack web development and a continuous drive to learn new technologies, I believe my technical expertise, dedication, and adaptability make me a strong candidate for your team.

I am available for an interview to further discuss my experience and motivation. Thank you for your time and consideration—I look forward to your response.

Best regards,
Flávio Henrique Schroeder Vicente

Recommendation Letter

To whom it may concern.

Flávio Vicente undertook a curricular internship at KOBU Agency as a Junior Full-stack Developer from February 2024 to July 2024. During his time at the company, he actively participated in the implementation of both internal and client projects, demonstrating exemplary performance.

Flávio is endowed with methodical and systematic capabilities, performing his tasks efficiently and demonstrating technical knowledge and high professional competence. With a positive attitude towards challenges, he never hesitated to acquire new knowledge to overcome the barriers of his daily activities. He also showed an excellent team spirit and integrated quickly into the team.

As the Founder and General Director of the company, internship supervisor, and colleague of Flávio Vicente, I believe he already demonstrates characteristics that will make him an excellent professional, presenting attributes such as honesty, competence, and professionalism, and I clearly recommend his hiring.

With no other subject for the moment, I offer my sincere regards,
